-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 03 June 2004.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

NON-FINAL REJECTION

DRAWINGS

1. This application has been filed with drawings that are considered informal; however, said drawings are acceptable for examination and publication purposes. The review process for drawings that are included with applications on filing has been modified in view of the new requirement to publish applications at eighteen months after the filing date of applications, or any priority date claimed under 35 U.S.C. §§119, 120, 121, or 365.

CLAIM REJECTION — 35 U.S.C. §103(a)

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

2. Claims 1-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §103(a) as being unpatentable over Perri, III US 2001/0020231 (Sep. 6, 2001) [US f/d: Apr. 24, 2000] (herein referred to as "Perri").

method of marketing a marketable entity selected from a group consisting of goods and services, the method comprising the steps of . . . creating a digital data base controlled by a Provider . . . offering a potential reward to a first party in exchange for promotional assistance of the first party, the promotional assistance comprising assistance in a forwarding of a first e-mail message to a second party, the first e-mail message comprising a personalized referral for the marketable entity, and a first set of data comprising a first serial number and a first URL link . . . creating a first Web site corresponding to the first URL link, the first Web site providing information on the referenced marketable entity and an offer to transact for the referenced marketable entity . . . correlating the first set of data n the first e-mail message to a first set of database data within the database, including data within the database relating to the potential reward offered to the first party in exchange for promotional assistance; and . . . forwarding the first e-mail message to a second party.”

Perri lacks explicit recitation of “a first serial number. . . .”; however, it would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art that the disclosure Perri (§ [0069]) “sponsor identifier. . . .” implicitly shows “a first serial number. . . .”; and it would have been obvious to modify and interpret the disclosure of Perri cited above as showing “a first serial number. . . .”, because modification and interpretation of the cited disclosure of Perri would have “[enticed] people to recommend a participating merchant. . . .” in various marketing campaigns, based on the motivation to modify Perri so as to “present [a] marketing system . . . that . . . eliminates the need for traditional advertising that requires expenditure of money prior to sales. . . .” (see Perri (¶ [0019])).

As per dependent claims 2-45, Perri shows the method of claim 1 and subsequent base claims depending from claim 1.

Perri lacks explicit recitation of some of elements and limitations of claims 2-45; therefore,

Official Notice is taken that both the concepts and the advantages of those elements and limitations of dependent claims 2-45 not explicitly shown by Perri were notoriously well known and expected in the art at the time of the invention, because it would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art that the disclosure of Perri cited above combined with the knowledge of one skilled in the art implicitly shows those elements and limitations of claims 2-45 which are not explicitly recited in Perri; and it would have been obvious to modify and interpret the disclosure of Perri cited above as implicitly showing all of the elements and limitations of claims 2-45, because modification and interpretation of the cited disclosure of Perri would have “[enticed] people to recommend a participating merchant. . . .” in various marketing campaigns, based on the motivation to modify Perri so as to “present [a] marketing system . . . that . . . eliminates the need for traditional advertising that requires expenditure of money prior to sales. . . .” (see Perri (¶ [0019])).

Independent claim 46 is rejected for substantially the same reasons as independent claim 1.

As per dependent claims 47-49, Perri shows the method of claim 46 and subsequent base claims depending from claim 46.

Perri lacks explicit recitation of some of elements and limitations of claims 47-49; therefore,

Art Unit: 3622

Official Notice is taken that both the concepts and the advantages of those elements and limitations of dependent claims 47-49 not explicitly shown by Perri were notoriously well known and expected in the art at the time of the invention, because it would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art that the disclosure of Perri cited above combined with the knowledge of one skilled in the art implicitly shows those elements and limitations of claims 47-49 which are not explicitly recited in Perri; and it would have been obvious to modify and interpret the disclosure of Perri cited above as implicitly showing all of the elements and limitations of claims 47-49, because modification and interpretation of the cited disclosure of Perri would have “[enticed] people to recommend a participating merchant. . . .” in various marketing campaigns, based on the motivation to modify Perri so as to “present [a] marketing system . . . that . . . eliminates the need for traditional advertising that requires expenditure of money prior to sales. . . .” (see Perri (¶ [0019])).
